Takeshi Kuroda

Unification of Asia seeks his ideal into the future. A time to participate in the universe, we seek the highest technology for its use.

If the world fails, we must stand against all change with cooperated and unified Asia.

How we may feed all peoples, That gives us, KURODA International consulting, not with a failure but worth for our decision for coming future.

You may follow our description in the past. May I ask what you can find within?

Reality must cover by now, it is called the new world order, and a great reset is now begun.

May We may find hope in the future. That is the reason we give this story for our prize.

If we may ask for cooperation with the universe, we could find a way.

These are the longest conversation we have had, and how we may expect the future then?

Let me cross my finger and wish for a good dream. Good luck and 再見.
