

Abandon of wars with the world

Kuroda International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

We have all history of the wars. Those cause all suffers still with the world today. We could ask abandon of wars with agreement. Any troubles under seeking own profit but same world and futures may be under agreement itself. Asking new credo that we shall share together.

Bases with same philosophy that new creation of the world. These if waiting futures that we could find today.

There is all new technology with new civilization with new participation to universe. There is new possibility with unification of the world.

These agreements come with all agreement of politics. If asking all agreement of all nations we could realize those.

The place with United Nation with open conference that any agreements of futures and world bases with all agreement of all nations. That is new creation of the world.

These agreements are all promises that we are sharing new realities. Abandon of the wars could base with all agreement.

That is all truth that politics have all creation of the world and futures. These is any growth of new reality today. IOT and any change is occurring now. Those have new creation of new world

All technology and system may be with new agreement of the world that have all possibility for us to ask the futures.

We find all confusion and troubles that the world may not forward to the futures. Any determine of politics that we are participating to new futures.
