Bases of national finance for basic income

KURODA International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

There is all requirement to move for basic income. Asking duty for working with flex environment and social learning is any participations to times and reality.

There require financial environment and tax system. Even social systems are required to be changed. But these guarantee basic lives to all peoples.

Basic income requires social change as any field of society and systems, but all these guarantees of lives could ask future and new possibilities.

As you may imagine all poor could be served own lives as same as for all and trend of the times. Basic income and social environment could possibly serve.

As expand any ideas that all peoples could ask own lives even purpose. This is all mean of equality that I swear.

New age has a promise that any dream we can see within eyes of children are given as the world.

These are social revolution that moving today with all system and technologies.

That you can find new philosophical change is with societies.
