Breakthrough actions against China's siege network

Kuroda International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

The Chinese siege will seek a breakthrough in diplomacy. Disclosure of information at the General Assembly of the United Nations and proposals for cooperation in world unity and future construction in world reconciliation and cooperation present consensus to all nations and confront the New World Order in the military. ..

Requests for public debate and suggestions to people suggest a revolutionary uprising into reality and cooperation in a new world.

It is possible to reach an agreement because the New World Order is a new world only in Caucasians, and even in Caucasians it is required to be a slave, and the coalition in these confronts reality. You can ask for the victory in World War III that they prepare.
