Takeshi Kuroda

Appointing sincere bureaucrats and seeking a new nation is not to lie. Sincere diplomacy is an equal self with all nations and advocates their harmony. Raise your own philosophy and propose responsibility for the world and the future. He responds to his mistakes in resolving them and asks the world to build new relationships in sincere dialogue. Eliminate the hypocrisy for the people and realize new possibilities for their society and life. The deployment of the army denies its falsehood to its own justice and words. These are the right actions for the hope of the future.
