

Military analysis

KURODA International

Takeshi Kuroda

The invasion of Ukraine gives a clear reality. Russia lacks any strategy, and its army is childish. They spend all their weapons and may not face other wars.

Under govern with all these realities, we only find China and NATO. And we may see World War 3rd.

USA has a complete military deployment at the tip of the IT system. To be compared with Russia and USA, we have a reality.

The immaturity of the military deployment must face NATO.

Space technology is a new use for wars. These are required with any calculation of any strategy.

Nuclear is the last fort. There is a last of power balances to step into the final battle.

These show the army's perfection and immaturity. These can be applied to actual warfare, and along with their practicality, can give the correct judgment to the military.

A foreign affair is full of necessity to face all war occasions. There is all control of politics. And these realities give only permission to handle any realities.

Any war must be under the control of reality and the right strategies. This only permits it to make a reality.

Military morale is always given with its justice.

Army deployments can seek victory in their tactics.
