Takeshi Kuroda

Nation is not based upon any comparing but bases with own understandings. These are facing any progress of all academics and possibly ask anew with own nation.

Education is any bases to see nation and the futures. Politics have own duty for all these understanding and possibly ask the futures.

Technology is any use to ask any progress of nation. Political plan is all its promise that we can find the futures. As public servant gives all detailed plan.

These are with right understanding that any realities may be possibly asked bases with own decision and actions.

Determines are as you give self without hesitation to be realized self. This is all promise that you may ask new nation.

Under any planes that we are facing new nation that you may dream anything but realities.
