

Participation in World War III

KURODA International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

Its plan in the New World Order has World War III. The response requires choices in all nations.

The acceptance of the world in the new philosophy realizes the formation of the third pole. Conflict between good and evil, to take distance, and propose to all nations in the world to participate in the future in ideals and ideas.

Self-advancement in the military enables early deployment of advanced weapons in collaboration with space and the formation of self-power in access to the United Nations lunar base.
