

Proposal in politics

KURODA International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

Politics is the only thing to serve to people. The technological leap opens the door to endless possibilities in the world. These are the creation of the right future.

Politics has a self at its core. They are academic deep-promotion, and they allow the construction of reality in it. Those reasons have potential.

Humanity is always its sharing, so fostering the agreement by sharing depends on this. These are the correct axes in diplomacy.

That will surely open up the future. These have the creation of the future.

Politics is given in dialogue with the people, and they give a new reality. Open politics is always given in that dialogue.

National independence is the right choice for the people to have a future and a life. Therefore, independence is a political mission.

Your belief is always required for politicians. Politicians must rely on beliefs, not obedience.

It is not permissible to deny the possibility of the future. It is always required to challenge the possibilities.
