We finally reach their dream, but still, they have a future.

The trend of life they have, we need the deepest considering that comes all their dreams.

The unilateralism of former President Trump and their top presence in the world are exploring a new future. These are the correct understandings required of every nation's foreign policy.

We may follow their style of life, but it requires more than all political effort.

We may calculate the future based on now. That means we may ask for a decision about our future.

The history of the USA has been following their dream that we have to know. And above, they may ask for their world strategy.

All these come with the new reality of the world that is what we have to handle in our reality.

They are not a good angel, but they could be satan. That is what we have to prepare for.

If the world changed in a moment, what do, you do? As we know, the world has its reality, and any concern with the universe gives us a new reality.

This is why the three dividing of the world and rising with its philosophy permit its standing point.

Equal reality is always the same condition to face equally in the world.
