These are any trends of any histories even nowadays. That is all proof all weak may not be permitted any moments of theirs.

Women and children may all symbols under no permission with the logic of the strong man. But what we can find today with growth of new social movement the weak raise own voice.

This is their battle against the world. Only they could find a hope to their futures.

Last waltz of tyrant is more than any party we can see with own eyes.

On the other hand, there is all effort to the world with Western camp to ask all progress of the world.

The transition from the logic of violence and exclusion to tolerance and reconciliation is asking new world of realities. All these bases of philosophy could ask own acceptances to the reality and use of new generation technology forwarding to the futures.

Gender equality gives same participation to the futures.

Basic income could give new life style and society.

Above those are new reality and new voices we can find within reality. And bases upon we could seek the new world.
