World consensus

KURODA International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

Gathering all consequence of the world and seeking same futures. These are facing any realities of the world.

There are all struggling of all realities but to seek the world under any philosophies, we are trying to be a brave.

World consensus is agreement and the futures. Even with unification of the world we may try.

Power politics is only a reality what we have. That all politician knows. But for a sake of peoples, we may try our works.

Ideals are facing reality that new philosophy seek a world. With any social movement today are dreaming.

If any acceptance of self and permission of self to all, and peace is agreement. What we could ask for all decision of the others?

All. New world consensus allow all freedom of the futures.
