

KURIDA INTERNATIONAL

Acceptance of the UN Commission on Human Rights and New participation in International Society

KURODA International Consulting
Takeshi Kuroda

The refusal of the Lytton League of Nations Commission before World War II was Japan's decision to join World War II.

All these show us to ask for a new decision as we may wonder if we accept the UN Commission on Human Rights and participate in international society as a humanitarian nation.

These are in North Korea and China, Myanmar, and Afghanistan to make participation in the international community can be made possible without problems.

All these choices must be deeply considered. Above, we are permitted to establish normal diplomatic relations and groping for relations.

All these are the new position to ask for a new presence of self in international society. We may calculate a new reality under different choices.

We may ask for a new consensus on all changes that occurred in International Society. Under all its conditions, we are equally asked for its steps worldwide.

This is a challenge we are trying to change ourselves to the world. All these are under reconstruction in Humanity and its agreements.

If the western fable of the north wind and the sun is true, we must not be the north wind.