After the unification

KURODA International
Takeshi Kuroda

Gathering all elite from bureaucrat of any nation, there is a reconstruction of the world. A new social system with a new economy seeks for the new world.

Remarks with full participation to universe and contact with as bases with a basic income to serve all problem with poor and Socially vulnerable, moral.

There is a necessity for new social infrastructure with society 5.0 under the same standard globally. These are governed by a government that is all from any political field.

Education is standardized with any place globally and seeks its purpose in life. Surviving was all requirement in history, but we are stepping to a new future to conquer them with the progress of all academics and technologies.

There must be all contact with an alien, and we are together to ask the same reality not limited to this planet.

These are new construction of new civilization. We share hopes for the future.
