Against evils as they cover the world

Kuroda International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

The only choice is not to resist evil, which requires the construction of self-reality on the other. If Evil has the world, that means the Illuminati has the world, and the words in the Bible are taken as accurate.

To resist it is to seek war. It is a request to participate in hell.

The new world order is all reality that we have to know. We may not be away from all these realities.

We must find goodness as we may wonder about Armageddon. All these are not from imagination but from reality. That is what we have to count on.

But we may take 3rd choice. To be away from them and seek our reality.

By expanding all these ideas, we may build a dream in society and country. There is all revolutionary progress today that we are asking for its use for any field of nation.

But there are all evils that we have to handle. That causes us to make new national and regional security under independence.

Under all govern with realities, we may offer and propose peace and unification of the world.

These realities mean that a consensus among all global citizens can agree to abolish war in the world.

Instead of all the above, we may seek paradise. We have all potential today.
