

Agreement with abandon of wars and providing housing environment

Kuroda International

Takeshi Kuroda

Abandon of wars cause new use of military expending. That agreement with politics makes a new world.

Creation of earth defense forces is all promise of unification of all army forces.

These are with abolition of armies for all nations. All these expense gives all promises to create new society.

Due to all these housing environment bases could equally be participated with new futures. For all peoples of the world that is promised for new social environments.

Under any representatives of the world that we could ask all these agreements and this causes unification of the world.

That new age as age of Aquarius is new participation to universe.

These with Society 5.0 and next society provide to all peoples with new society.

These could be agreement of all political party that creation of new world.

Under abandon of wars all expense of armies give use for creation of new world.

Source of revenue could give soundness of financial condition and as new ages to recreate under new technologies.

This is promise that all people could ask new housing environment and creation of new society.