

America's dream

KURODA International

Takeshi Kuroda

Any ideal and dreams of theirs become illusions by now. Must enjoy the evil dance.

A dream is an adjustment of self from and with own desire. That is needed with conditions without lies.

The American lifestyle has changed by computer ages. Progressed lives require condition by conquering. This is a reach point of progress and reality.

They have their justice. That means they may not follow evils.

The world accepted their dreams and justice in the 20th century. They are facing their decision.

Their presence is no. 1, as Russia proves it. They have their decision to the world as they paid any effort in the 20th Century.

The world asks themselves of their sakes. Who may be working for their voices?

Who dares to seek dreams in the future? And who may help all its voices as all weak of voices?

We are only permitted its dream under peace. They paid all their effort in the 20th Century.