

Any tears we have in Ukraine

KURODA International Consulting Takeshi Kuroda

How many tragedies could we find in the past? All these are with wars that we spent with all tears. That is all reason we need an agreement and solution for reality.

All these are the consensus for any of the wars. If we are trying to seek a new world, we could build a base of any realities.

As anglo Saxon mission must cover the world with his justice. But participation in International society, we are trying to propose a decision regarding wars.

There is a responsibility for any reality. And all these are as same as all history on this planet. All social activities build justice for humanity.

We find that all these are the agreement not to be caused any wars as all tears as tragedies. We must ask for all responsibility in politics.

As we may see, weak in Ukraine. They are only permitted with tears but the future.

If they could dream of a world and future, Those must be any solution to the world.

How could we judge the world from all these points of view?

All politician has a decision for the world. It is called their responsibility. Righteous justice may judge the world with all tears in Ukraine.

Now we have heroes in the world. He must be a hope to all futures.
