

At the time of the decisive battle

Kuroda International

Takeshi Kuroda

The battle with the world gives decisions. Facing all reality, we could step forward.

Facing with army forces to ask all settlement of the world.

This is a decision we may ask with a world.

The we may argue with a future.

Capitals and army under politics divide the world as order.

We may stand same table to decide the world order.

Only a king may stand for the world.

Asking the best dish for a victory.
