Recent century, all wars ended with the truth. WW1 and WW2, WW3 come as same as it is. Western camps build justice but the tail of control.

This is the end of history that we are facing. A victory makes it gives possible to own the world.

At this end of the moment, all civilizations of history ask for its victory, facing all records of wars.

We are facing the new king of the world. These are all results of a history of wars.

The last cards are Japan and China. West meets East at this moment.

Under all philosophical considerations, humanity is equally facing reality. All academic progress may consider self with truth or lies.

Who may reach the future that what you have to know?

All ideals of humanity are facing any realities as it is called futures.

That proves that dream must be facing reality for its last judgment.

As all history has as its reality, the winner takes the world. Losers must leave the stage.
