True man's dream may be known to the world. He must seek for all dreams to be realized by all people. That is called paradise in the world.

One last truth is that the world must be served for all people but out of any rejection or failure.

The world for all people. Do we find one who failed?

All ideals of humankind must conquer any disappointment, pain, and suffering.

We now reach the future from any history of the earth. So we insisted we may need to have a dream.

To see all children, they may not be a tool of nationalism but stay with their future.

We are not trying to be enslaved, so to see all history, we find all revolutions.

Who is asking for any responsibility for the world? That is only who we could rely on.

In the past, we only found all wars. On one side of all these realities, the king's grace may occupy the world. But on the other side, there are all suffers of any weak.

We need a new world from all mistakes. Politicians may ask for all determination of the world.

Imagine form lyrics of Mr. John Lennon may not be ideal, but we could decide them in a second.

To find all truth of the world, we see any danger and fears with them. So as we insist, we need a new world.

We could try for a unified government to solute any problems.
