Takeshi Kuroda

We are betting the final coin in Bali. All represent make an entire decision with the world.

We take a total distance from the new world order, and meeting with all kings gives an entire agreement of the world.

US President may give all help to us, and then we try our own sincerely to the world.

After all these commissions, we send its declaration to the world.

If we could agree to design the world and future, it comes different from any realities we have but the future.

How many votes do we expect? But politics must ask for serious conversation and discussions.

As we have to know, that king may not be enslaved.

When all kings are gathered, our office proposes any decision of the world.

There must be a king from the sun-rising nation, and he may take the lead.
