Any history of this planet is filled up with wars. It had caused all pain and suffering to all weaks.

How many tears can we count on in those realities? As we find the same realities in Ukraine. That gives us all considering abandoning wars on this planet.

All wars are from all its egos that show us all wealth of kings. We need a new future.

The decision gives a reality by a new. We need to ask for its conclusion from all Ukraine people and Russian soldiers.

Who prefers wars? Only with a tyrant.

Out of wars, we have peace. That permits all dreams within. Who protects the peace? It comes with all soldiers. It is the most irony ever existed.

The greatest politicians are those who serve the people in their convictions. The choice gives the future.

There are all children for whom we must take responsibility for their future to make a complete agreement and work for reality.

We may dream of a world that we are standing fight against.

The true king is always given his crown by his people.
