

Judgment of the final reality of the Chinese encirclement

KURODA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

Altogether ditched China and did its own thing in cooperating with the new world.

We are trying to cooperate with the world, not any conflict we have to spend ourselves. Sharing the world must give us a reality that we can work for the future.

We must avoid the inhuman reality and all ideals we have to share. This must be the right decision for us to participate in the world.

This definitive decision is a global agreement not to repeat the tragedy of humankind, and it proposes a unified and shared future for the world.

Self-responsibility must be an agreement and law of the world.

Harshness is always the right world choice.
