

Last determination

Kuroda International

Takeshi Kuroda

Determine that the mind may conquer everything. This means we are facing all reality of the world.

Any reality is under its determination. That forces us to the world for our world.

There is no escape we may ask the future. We are trying to create our reality.

There are given anyways as we try. There must be a final war we may not ask to escape from.

The game is decided by determination.
