Under any philosophical consideration, liberalism has a profound truth of its reality as it won against communism.

Forced reality is facing all freedom. This was a choice of cold wars, and we have today in the world. And we see defernite justice in the world today.

Liberalism is permitted with its choice under responsibility, giving progress of the world free of will. Under the forced-to-be, all dreams must be stolen by power.

Socialism based on humanity is the root of the west. All these are combined by the justice and reality we have.

Any consideration of philosophy must give a decision to liberalism. There is all acceptance of existing of being by liberalism, and communism was Authoritarianism.

We are not asking for direction from others but seeking any purpose in the world that has permission under liberalism.

Any acceptance of self-consciousness is a law of liberalism. But all forced is the other side we have as communism, as the fable of the North Wind and the Sun.

Under socialism, all these comparisons must be deeply considered. Since these are the difference between forced and willing.

If we ask for any calculation by academics, we have an idea that humanity's growth is reaching progress. Forced gives deny of self even growth of self.

If there is progress and retrogression under two differences, we may consider any reality and find an answer for the future.
