Dialogue may reach a new world, and it causes a new consensus of the world.

We can reach a new idea, which is all the new maps of the world. These are given by all new dialogues.

We have all the new talent who have all the hopes and vision for the world. We may give them an opportunity to express themselves.

These are international conferences under the presence of world politics to give all opportunities to young talents.

Dialogue may seek answers to the future, and we have all the progress of academics today.

Forced under powers may not be any agreement if we are trying to follow any hopes. But these are the world's realities we can't be away from.

If the saying is true that the pen is mightier than the sword, then these challenges may give birth to the future.

Ambition and challenge are the new possibilities in the future. These are the habits of all youth.

If we have all the new designs of the world, the world may have its choice.

If a new philosophy may propose a new world, these are the new design and future of itself, and we have our choices of the world.
