

Our actions to all reality of the world that is waiting in the future

KURODA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

World War 3rd is planned for the future, and we need our actions.

Presenting our ideals to the world and confronting reality with all our military and economic strength is the only way to have hope for the future.

These are signs of fighting, not running away from World War III.

We need to raise our world vision to face all new occurring in the future. These are the right decisions to face reality and seek ourselves in all changes.

The absolute superiority of the Western camp is a world reality. However, seeking equality with these and exploring the future is the only choice.

New world order is the only reality we can find in the world. Then as we suggested, we need to make our decision.

The creation of the new world is all from new visions. That is a necessity we have to participate in the world.

Conflict may not give peace. We dare to take full responsibility for the world and the future.

Dialogue may be the right decision we are trying to share with the world.

Victory and defeat are always the decisions of the world. Here lies our choice.

