Realization of a society in which all persons with disabilities can participate equally

Kuroda International Foundation

Takeshi Kuroda

Society with lives may ask all invitation to all disabilities. That political enactment of law could realize all barrier free environment.

Any realities are asking cooperation with industry. These are social agreement and with expenditure on costs may ask more useful for all social environment.

Regional government help for all disabilities as far as they can. Even social agreement among with peoples invite for all disabilities in society.

As there is progress of technology as cooperated with industry that may ask more convenience of society.

That we could imagine that all opportunity is opened for all peoples. We may share lives and society.

We are equally participated with any opportunity for the world and futures. That equally asking all dreams within.

Politics may lead for all reality to all convenience of participations. Sharing society is provided with any reality for a society.
