

Russia and after

KUORDA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

Wagner's Prigogine rebellion is the fragility of the Russian state and contrasts with the organizational realities of the West. These are the correct understandings of reality in the future.

China's subjugation of Russia exists in the economy. Russia's space and military technology will be in China's hands.

CIA must seek the orange revolution in Russia. But Mr. Putin must take China. These are the reality of moving in World War 3rd.

If Asia gives the world with own world vision, Africa and South America must make their decision. That means we could make a change in all realities.

Then all matter comes with United Nations. They are forwarding to the world government with his justice.

At the end of the moment, we have to know the decision goes with the military. That means war decides the world.

That is all requirement of all ours. We have to be prepared for them from now to the future.

All these bases come from domestic industry. So economic security is needed as a top priority.

After spending ourselves in new diplomatic action, we must cover our group in all realities.

As we disclose all information, we can forward with the justice of ours. And we see how the world reflects the truth.