

Russia

KURODA International

Takeshi Kuroda

Their nation's most extensive land and bases may ask all potentials to the future. Under international society, they are defined as evils.

Economical shut down may ask themselves with their future, and international society may close themselves to Russia.

Inland national consciousness leave from Mr. Putin. Western camp gathers their nation as the Orange revolution.

Russia was standing against with cold wars. From this point of view, these matters are essential to see all changes in the world.

To see their nation's economy is so weak compared to Western camp. They are standing under nuclear weapons to ask for independence. They have all space technology and military technology. To see their invasion of Ukraine strategy is such luck of themselves. That means they may not stand equal to the western camp.

Social planning and development of its industry may ask for their progress—a land development from Moscow to Siberia with the highest technology they can do.

Construction of all new infrastructure under society 5.0 that we may imagine how they spend their futures. These are the same hobit we may know the world today. This is all tails as they are facing their reality today.