If China has his only decision to seek a future that is acceptance of Taiwan's rule, What do you have in your mind?

International Society has a consensus by humanity. That is all agreement of the world, and it gives all judgment to any realities.

As you know, we have all realities, even the tails of the world. If China participates in international society by Taiwan's rule, what do you find in the changes?

They both have the same roots. As we propose all descriptions, what can you see within?

Conflict and wars may not even give a solution, but any tragedies.

What is your dream to cooperate with both nations? What is the difference in the future?

What can you see in the eyes of all your people? That must give you a decision.

In the hare and tortoise fable, the tortoise wins in the end.

If China accepts Taiwan's rule, what is the difference in all their steps with the world?

Encirclement of China seeks the complete destruction of China, and choice can seek a different future.

The futures are only given under your choice. That means you have all your decision.

The bravest hero wins all battles.
