

The Encirclement of China and New Chinese Diplomacy

KURODA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

The liberal camp seeks a new future based on economic security and military security. These are the cages that are called encirclement of China.

Without any doubt, there is a tail called the new world order. We have to make all calculations of any reality under all these circumstances.

Anglo-Saxon's mission with NATO that what we have to face with our realities. We are trying to make our group facing equally to all these realities.

Equality is only caused by equal reality and environment. We need at least the same condition as an industry, military, capital, society, and livelihood.

Then diplomacy is permitted under participation in international society. That is all proof that power politics is only a reality but any mind control by media or CIA agents.

Equal standing point is only a possibility we may seek a future. That requires and forces us to make all our efforts.

Chinese diplomacy, as we see among Saudi Arabia and Iran. But world war 3rd is from the collapse of Middle Eastern peace.

That gives us the idea that we need the same reality to face any reality of the coming future.

Wise always takes a world that the past proves them in its reality.

Unification of the whole of Asia could be the right standing point to face the coming future. We have a change in the future, we need to prepare of them and force us to make a decision.