The world is created under courage. That is the only possibility we may ask for a world.

As we are facing any realities and all plans for the future. How may we find a step forward?

If we find all truth of the world, we can agree that courage is only permission to the future.

How could we find a difference in a step forward with courage and fear?

This is the only possibility we could find a future.

This comes with the right attitude to face world war 3rd.

What is a decision? We know courage gives only a way forward.

How could we reach the future?

This is a way to make own vision into reality.

Who is running away from the world, and whom could you find standing against it?

How could we realize all our dreams?

Hope is the only way we can follow. We may not be away from it.

Only a truth that politics takes all decisions.
