

The nation makes itself the people's choice.

KURODA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

All give a nation with its people. That means peoples are nations themselves.

The people could give a choice to a nation. We are not trying to force them but his volunteer of self.

With word called public servant is the right attitude toward politics then. Politics are responsible for all explanations of the nation to people, and all conversation permit agreement with a people.

A nation is a people. That understanding gives the proper action in all politics.

We are trying to make a paradise. We may not ask for pain and suffering.

In the 20th century, we had a revolution by the USA as they fought against the world to hold their people's ages.

We can see a king has his decision to a world. But if the people have them, what can we see in the world?

These are the revolution as we insist on disclosing all information. Dice are passed to people. This is a new world choice.