

The promise of the future

October 14th, 2023

KURODA International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

It may be a hope. That is what we have to work for.

But all reality we have is that we have to calculate any possibility of the future. And then we only have our decision.

We need our vision of the world. That is what we could gather with the world.

Consequences may stand against vanity. We are trying to make our world then. We have all the challenges of the world.

We have all our choices to make all our realities. As we send any ideas to the world, you may find any reference to them.

We may dream of the world's unification and building a unified government. And we have a new step in the universe.

We must find a promise of the future, which must be a hope and a dream. That is what we have to work for.

Asian union could be any basis we can seek for any realities. That gives us the same step as the NATO.

And we may gather the world under our world vision.

We had a whole conversation from my WEB site to the world. Then, we could act for the world and the future.

Determine the mind could break a rock. We need to make all our realities to face the world and try to make a righteous way to the future.