

The world under its crisis

Kuroda International Consulting

Takeshi Kuroda

Meltdown means the world can not hold itself. The bankruptcy of the nation must be occurred by the Covid 19 pandemic. The world may not wait for you.

Related to the Ukraine matter, we have to know all its tails. That gives us only permission to face the world.

The new money system and the world government are under-planned. The reality may not ask for you all but all its realities.

I give you an idea. The only way to ask for a world is to take action and appear own vision.

We have to know they have all their way to go. And we have to make ours.

We need to try to pay for our effort. Then what can we see? They make theirs, and we make ours.

World War 3rd must be prepared. Then what is our decision? We need to stand against the world with our military forces.

We need all calculations and have to stand equally to the world as any reality.

We have to know that the Western camp has not been harmed at all by any changes we have in the world.

They have their way to go, meaning we must have our way to the future. Then you see that you find any descriptions from our office.

We can try our effort to cross our fingers.