We have a decision for the world. That means we need to take action.

Tomorrow comes from our decision. That is what we have to know.

This is a way how to reach hope.

In any history, all this courage makes a world. That is all reason they are called heroes.

We are facing all difficulties in reality. But we need a future. That is all reason we must take action.

I made all world vision. Who may follow all my word? That is all questions from myself to the world.

The time has come. We must know we have a delighted future under conquering all reality we have today.

Millennium is all our promise. It may not be theirs.

We need to move all our military under the promise of victory.
