KURODA International

Takeshi Kuroda

They are struggling with the new world order. We have our plans from our office that we are trying to cooperate with them under our visions.

This equal partnership is an agreement with the same world and future.

This is a secret conference to share the world and its gorven.

There is all participation in the universe with a new age that even we ask all cooperations.

We are with the unification of Asia, and they have their alliance with white races.

This equal partnership is all basis for building a new world.
