In the 20th Century, the USA fought against the world with its justice of freedom. But back in the 21st century, we are facing tragedy in Ukraine.

We can not find a winner in all these invasions. Ukraine lost all its life and infrastructure, and Russia lost most of its army and capital. We reach to agree the means of wars.

Back to the former description that the USA makes himself with justice and after all circumstances today. Humanity and freedom have stood against authoritarianism. But still, we need help finding a solution for the world.

In the Ukraine tragedy, people and both soldiers lost all their lives. We may find how the dialogue instead of wars.

How may the lighting cover the world as hope for all people?

Dialogue and decision could seek the future that comes from all shared reality.

A world without suffering is all our ideals in the past and future. And all new technology gives us hope for the future. That is all reality we have today.

In history, the world has been filled with wars that have caused all pain, suffering, and sorrow. That is why we must consider all these invasions as wars.

We could choose a new world that is all from any decision of all people.
